LIFESTYLES

A synthesis of new ideas spring from the interactions of great minds. Man is always cognitive of his environment; therefore one should be mindful not to judge a book by its cover. Times are forever changing; creating a celebration for the art of existence.

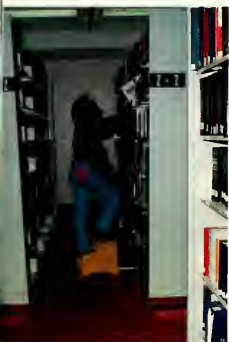

1994

DIVERSIONS

Growth of the mind and soul is far more than the amassing of volumes read; the mind can be made beautiful by the painter, the dancer, the writer, and the actor.

Eagle

Yet another rewarding year of North Carolina Central University's continued excellence has emerged in its everlasting motto of "truth and service." Over the course of many years in the life of our college, our alma mater has excelled in academics, sports, arts and entertainment, leadership organizations and various other talents. These major areas are responsible for the enhanced growth of "Eagle Essence without Excuse." Together with the faculty, staff and the large majority — the student body constantly working together towards a common goal. This goal is a devotion to prosper and broaden in academics as well as gain a cultural awareness of the African American Community. North Carolina Central University is in many ways "a land of new hopes" for the fulfillment of greater heights in equal leadership among all races. The people of NCCU are able to advance in academics, appreciate the importance of extra-curricular activities and experience an enlightenment of African American pride in a diverse society. The 1993-94 Eagle Yearbook Staff welcomes you to North Carolina Central University — a land of the soaring Eagles. The following yearbook has been created with careful preparation for your pleasure and enjoyment. We hope that you will see the forthcoming events and individuals as a tradition of continued excellence of proud Eagles "upholding the fame at NCCU."

Essence

Eagle

The land of the proud Eagles of North Carolina Central University welcomes every newcomer with the opportunity to be active in our many areas of higher achievement. From advanced academics to prepares its students to excel to great levels of success in order to be ready for the challenging world of opportunity that awaits each of us.

Horizons

Dear Old NCC"

The sloping hills, the verdant green
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen

Surround our college proud and gay,
Where wave our colors Maroon and
Gray.

What matters is how far we roam,
Our thoughts will oft return to home.

And hearts will e'er be true to thee
Our Alma Mater N.C.C.

We've gathered here to fit our lives,
As from the darkness, light revives.

So let us hail both night and day,
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray!

We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.

Then let our watch-word "service" be,
O Alma Mater, NCC.

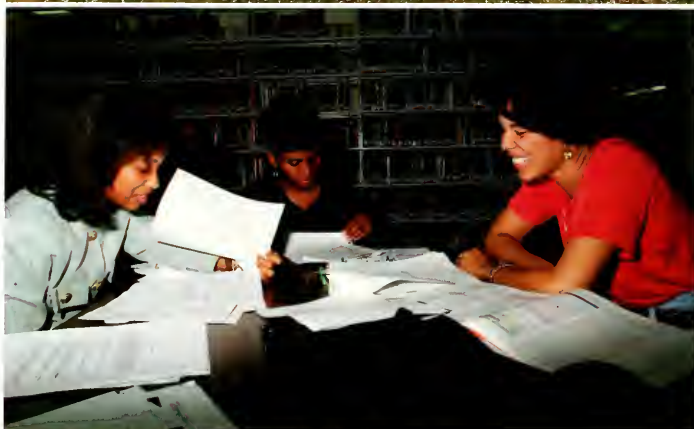

You send us forth with hearts of love,
So like a blessing from above.

And from the path we'll never stray,
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and
Gray.

We'll work and fight, we'll win our way,
When duty calls, we shall obey.

And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, NCC.

JULIUS CHAMBERS

NCCU

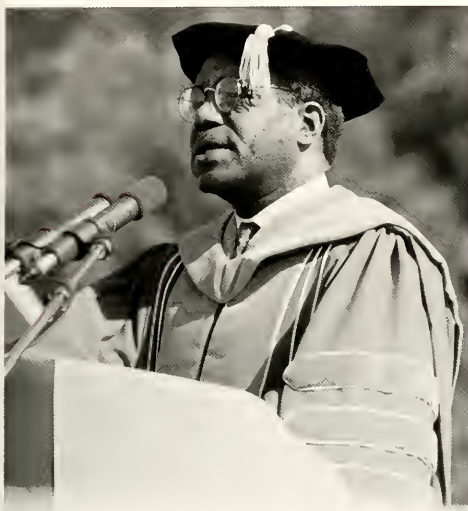

OCT 22, 1993
CHANCELLOR
INAUGURATION

Mr. Julius L. Chambers

Dr. Julius Chambers addresses the senior class at the 1993 Commencement.

Mr. Chambers is hard at work in his office.

Dr. Julius L. Chambers, who became Chancellor of North Carolina Central University January 1, 1993, has been Director-Counsel for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., headquartered in New York City since 1984. He had previously served as president and a member of the organization's board.

A native of Mt. Gilead in Montgomery County, N. C., Mr. Chambers received his Bachelor of Arts degree, summa cum laude, from North Carolina Central (then North Carolina College at Durham) in 1958. He received the Master of Arts degree in history from the University of Michigan in 1959, the Juris Doctor degree (with high honors) from the University of North Carolina School of Law in 1962, and the LL. M. degree in law from Columbia University in 1964.

He assisted in the establishment of the Black Lawyers Association of London (originally Black Rights United Kingdom) and the Black Lawyers Association in South Africa.

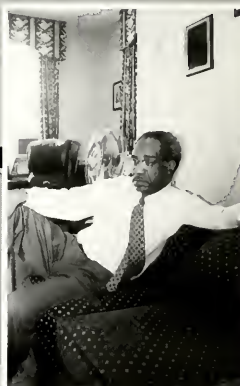

Mr. Chambers has taught constitutional law and civil rights law at the law schools of the University of Virginia, Harvard University, the University of Pennsylvania, Columbia University, and the University of Michigan.

He is married to the former Vivian Giles of Kannapolis, N. C. They are the parents of Derrick LeVonne and Judy Levern Chambers.

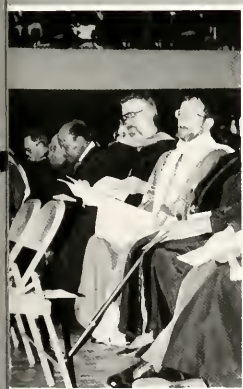

1994

THE FACULTY

To gain for themselves, and for others, a synthesis of knowledge past to move to a further and higher plateau of intellectual achievement.

Dr. Terry, Mrs. Davis, and Ms. Peele enjoy a moment with a student.

Dr. Terry always find the time to help the people at North Carolina Central University.

Dr. Terry is the new Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs.

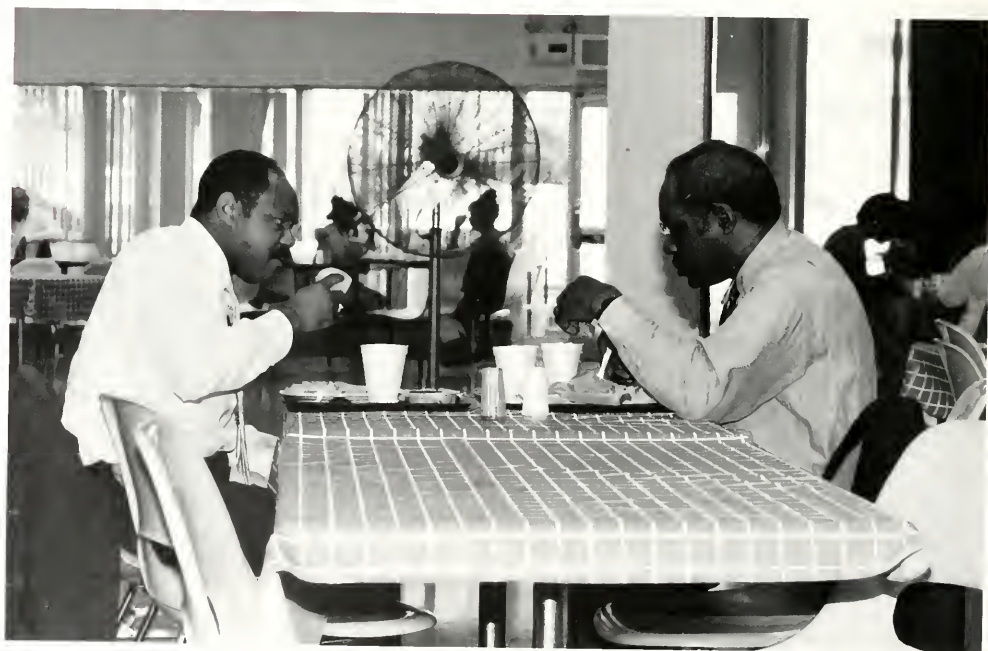

The 104-acre campus of North Carolina Central University, its 5,500 students, and its comprehensive undergraduate and graduate curricula are significant assets to the state of North Carolina

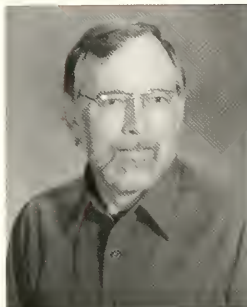

Founded in 1910 by James Edward Shepherd, North Carolina Central University became in 1925 the nation's first state-supported liberal arts college for African-Americans. Today the Durham campus is a constituent institution of the 16-campus University of North Carolina.

Members of the North Carolina Central University faculty and staff always work together for the growth of the University and its student body.

UNDERCLASSMEN

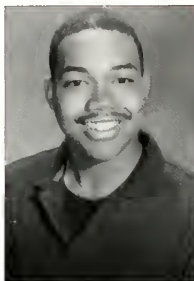

A mere glance at the faces and dreams of humanity that evoke the ironic realization that, perhaps, the only trait shared amongst ourselves is an inherent diversity from each other.

QUEENS

There is no place like home! Homecoming was a special time as students returned to North Carolina Central to remember the good as well as the not so good time.

The year also saw the crowning of many beautiful ladies.

Laurie Nicole Robinson

Miss NC Central 1993

Laurie Nicole Robinson, a senior at North Carolina Central University is the daughter of Mrs. Frances Privott Robinson of Fort Washington, Maryland and Attorney James R.L. Robinson of Washington, D.C.

Laurie is a 21-year-old public administration major enrolled in the University Honors Program and has received honors which include being on the Academic Dean's List, a Lyndon B. Johnson Congressional Scholar recipient, member of Alpha Kappa Mu National Honors Society, and selection for Who's Who Among American College Students. Laurie, an active member on campus, reigns as Miss North Carolina Central University, serves on the Food Service Committee, is Vice-President of House Council, and a member of the Alpha Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Incorporated.

Ms. Robinson has interned for the U.S. House of Representatives, Durham City Police Department, United States Senate, and the Department of the Army, Corps of Engineers. In addition, she served as a campaign worker for Clinton - Gore and former Senator Terry Sanford. She recently attended the seventh National Conference on Undergraduate Research in Salt Lake City, Utah, where she presented a paper on HOW PRINT MEDIA EFFECTS THE OUTCOME OF POLITICAL ELECTIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Laurie participated in the National Black College Alumni Hall of Fame Pageant and won fourth runner-up. In December, she won the title of Miss Atlantic City Holiday Classic.

Eying the future, Laurie plans to become an environmental lawyer and later an United States Senator.

ORGANIZATIONS

A connective force, superficially suggesting fragmentation, yet subtly tying together the diversity of purpose through the common bond of activity

ORGANIZATIONS

Always On The Go

Many organizations exist on the campus at North Carolina Central University.

The A.E.S.U. Program Board coordinates programs for the student body to enjoy. The members and the advisors of this organization work to develop activities that will enhance student life.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. was founded at North Carolina Central University on February 23, 1932. The sorority's motto is "Service to All Mankind".

Alpha Kappa Mu is a national scholastic honor society and is open to junior and senior men and women from all academic areas. Alpha Kappa Gamma promoted scholarship and encouraged service.

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. strived to fulfill its motto "First of All, Service of All, We Shall Transcend All". The Gamma Beta Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. was founded on the campus of North Carolina Central University in 1941.

ORGANIZATIONS

ORGANIZATIONS

Our Company

The American Marketing Association was established at North Carolina Central University in January, 1989. The American Marketing Association is committed to the advancement of excellence in the field of marketing.

Bon Vivant Fashion Society consisted of fashion conscious students. The organization introduced latest fashions to the student body on a seasonal basis through fashion shows.

The Bowling Team consisted of persons who were interested in bowling as an extracurricular activity. The Bowling Team also travelled to various places to participate in tournaments and their picture is found in the sports section.

Computer Information Systems Club was established in December, 1987. The goals of this organization were to develop a better understanding of the nature and function of data processing, to promote sound general principles of data and information processing, and to study technical methods.

The Criminal Justice Club provided a peer group for students majoring in Criminal Justice. The Club sponsored trips to regional and national conventions, seminars featuring professionals from criminal justice fields, and excursions to local facilities.

ORGANIZATIONS

We Have Spirit

The ladies of the Alpha Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta participated in many community projects throughout the year. It was one of the most active organizations on campus.

The Finance Club was founded on the campus of North Carolina Central University in 1979. The objective of the Finance Club included providing outside-the-classroom learning through educational speakers and seminars.

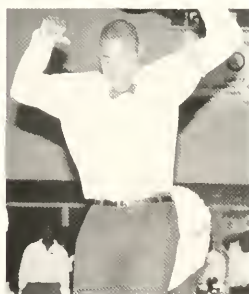

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. was founded in Bloomington, Indiana on January 5, 1911. Dr. James E. Shepard established Kappa Alpha Psi on the campus of North Carolina Central on June 1, 1931.

Kappa Kappa Psi, the band fraternity, busted onto the scene in 1991. They transformed from being that "mild mannered" band fraternity to the hard stepping paraphernalia wearing brothers of Kappa Kappa Psi.

ORGANIZATIONS

Ready or Not

Lambda Alpha Epsilon is a new organization on the campus of North Carolina Central University. It was established in the Fall of 1992. While working to fulfill their chapter's motto "Nerves of Blue Steel and Heart Gold," they also strived toward their national motto, "Commitment to Excellence."

The Metro Club was comprised of members from the Washington D.C., Maryland, and Northern Virginia areas. The organization promoted positive progress through strong leadership.

The Math and Computer Science Club lived for the motto, "There's no problem or program too hard if you put your mind and time into it". The club contributed to the knowledge of the students as well as others by holding seminars.

The N.A.A.C.P. was founded in 1909 with its' purpose and goals being to assist those whose civil rights were violated and misrepresented. At NCCU, the organization upheld the meaning of the national organization by being a voice for students whom their rights had been neglected or denied.

ORGANIZATIONS

Faces In The Crowd

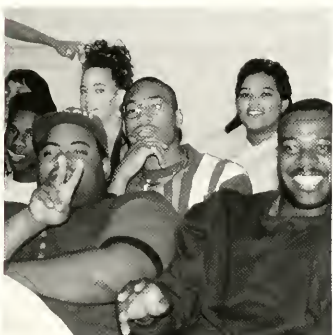

The Tau Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi, Inc. was organized on October 28, 1932 at North Carolina Central University. The brothers of Omega Psi Phi were committed to manhood, scholarship, perseverance and uplift.

The Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda was established at NCCU on September 15, 1965. Its purpose was to promote opportunities for college students to gain experience in the business fields.

"Culture for Service and Service for Humanity" was the motto for the Gamma Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. The goals for the brothers of Phi Beta Sigma were to promote brotherhood, scholarship, and service among its members and among those in the communities.

The Society for Advancement of Management (S.A.M.) was established at NCCU as recent as 1991. The motto S.A.M. achieved was "To assist students in their professional development as future managers."

ORGANIZATIONS

Just Having Fun

The Student Government Association (S.G.A.) centered around the interests of the student body. The S.G.A. was the organization that answered the complaints, suggestions, and compliments from students in order to make North Carolina Central University an even more wonderful place to be.

The Beta Omicron of Sigma Gamma Rho was founded at NCCU in 1952. These ladies motto was "Greater Service, Greater Progress."

Student Ambassadors were the "light" for NCCU. The main goal of the organization was student recruitment from all over the state, county, and the world. The student ambassadors were the first individuals that tour groups met when they first arrived at NCCU.

United Northerners In Quest for Unparalleled Excellence was a regional organization for students from the Northeast. Its purpose was to create and maintain unity among individuals from New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

ORGANIZATIONS

Always Moving Forward

The Touring Choir contained many beautiful voices available on North Carolina Central University's campus. The choir made routine tours throughout the year leaving a pleasant song in everyone's hearts.

"Where there is unity, there is strength" was the motto that shined upon North Carolina Central University Worship and Praise Inspirational Mass Choir (W.P.I.). The Choir was established at NCCU in 1987 and it is nondenominational.

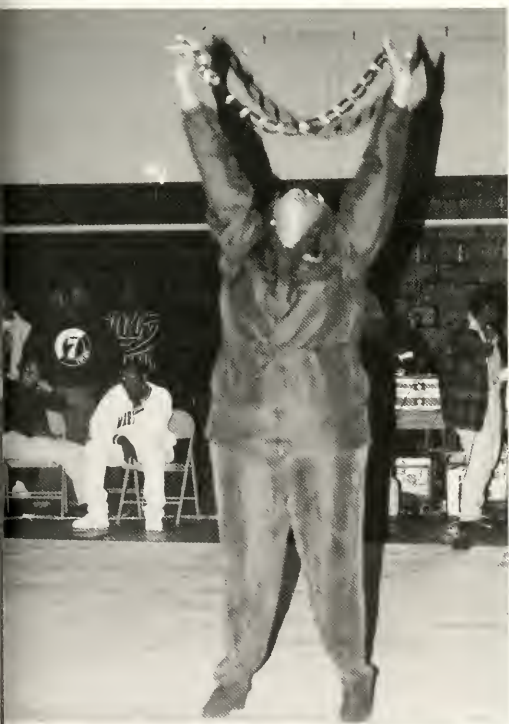

The Campus Echo was one of the many student publications available on NCCU campus. The Campus Echo staff worked to keep students informed of the events that affected NCCU and surrounding areas.

Junior Class was established at North Carolina Central University in 1990. The Junior Class participated in both community and social activities throughout the year.

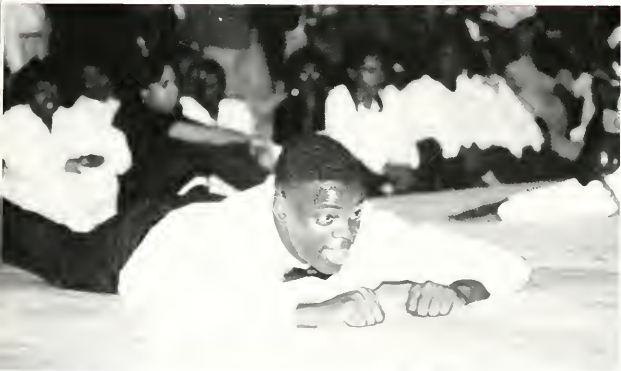

ORGANIZATIONS

Getting Organized

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. was founded at Howard University, Washington, D.C. on January 16, 1920 by five black women. The objectives of these women were womanhood, scholarship, service, and sisterly love.

Other organizations which have appeared at North Carolina Central University included Charlotte's Finest, Class Officers, Pre-Professional Health Society, Psychology Club, Chemistry Club, American Education Association, Banker's Education Society, Baptist Student Union, Finance Club, Caulbert A. Jones History Club, N.A.B.A. (National Association of Black Accountants, Inc., Sociology Club, and the Yearbook Staff.

DERRICK LAVON BOONE

December 3, 1972 — August 27, 1993

North Carolina Central University mourns the untimely death of Derrick Lavon Boone of Ahoskie, N.C.

At North Carolina Central University, Derrick was very outgoing and a fun-loving person, no matter the situation. He enrolled at NCCU in the fall of 1992 with plans to receive his degree in criminal justice. Powerfully built at 6-5, 330 pounds, he gave 100 per cent effort on the football field. During his freshman season he started at right tackle for the Eagles throughout the season. His enthusiasm and spirit strengthened his teammates.

At Hertford County High School, Derrick was a complete student-athlete. He participated in football, basketball, baseball and track. As a high school football star he was all-conference from 1988 to 1991, Most Valuable Player in 1990 and 1991, and a recipient of All-East Player-of-the-Year honors.

Derrick is survived by his mother, Ethelene Boone of Ahoskie; by two brothers, Daryl R. and Durrell R. Boone of Ahoskie; his grandmother, Minnie Boone of Ahoskie; his great-grandmother, Martha Boone of Suffolk, Va.; three uncles, two aunts, one nephew, and a great host of relatives and friends.

He will be sorely missed by the NCCU Administration, Faculty, Staff, and Students, and most of all by the members of the NCCU Football Team.

MEANING OF LIFE AND DEATH

To live is to say "Hello,"
To die is to say, "Goodbye";

We don't know how long we will have
To say, "Hello,"
We don't know when we may have
To say, "Goodbye";

So, while here on Earth,
Be the best guest you can;
And your company will be forever
Appreciated.
